TWO CENTS

CHIDING THE CHINESE

Events On the Other Side of the Pacific.

A LETTER FROM THE ORIENT

An Interesting Document—Japan's Determined Soldiers—Chinese Braves in the Hospital of the Enemy—Two Stories Dealing With Events in the Countries Now At War.

The communication which follows is to a friend in this city from a missionary stationed in China, across the bay from the famous town of Port Arthur, and will be interesting to all who have followed the Japanese army in their conquest of the Chinese sea board:

"There is but little war news at present. The Japs have not made the anticipated progress, but are slowly forcing back the army of the emperor. The last fight of which authentic news can be obtained occurred at Kaiping, a city 30 miles southeast of New Chwang. Hai-Chang has been in the possession of the Japanese for some time, and it was supposed that the second army, the first holding Haichang, had effected a junction with it long ago; but it appears that General Sung-Ching, the bravest of the Chinese commanders and the man from whom so much was expected, had held the second army in check. Then they were re-enforced, and he was defeated after a severe struggle in which the Chinese say they lost 1,000 men and the Japs 2,000, but the ratio of loss was likely the reverse. Immediately after the battle the Chinese retreated, and the Japs followed them at no great distance. The country is barren. Trees are few and far between, an occasional house, and small streams, at this season frozen solid, mark the country. Both armies depend upon commissary supplies that follow closely. The Japs get theirs all from Japan except what they capture, which means no little detail and foresight. It is impossible for ships to enter the harbors here in the north, and thus no stores can be landed nearer the army than at Port Arthur, from which place they are packed to the front. The roads are better than the usual routes in China, but at the best pass over the hills and rolling country of the Liaotung peninsula. The peace commissioner, Chang, was able to get to a steamer lying off the mouth of the river at Ta-ku, and is by this time well on his way to Japan. Here he will be joined by another, the governor of Formosa, and it is their duty to effect a cessation of war if it can be done without complying with the demands of Japan. China will agree to anything but a gift of territory; but as this is just what Japan insists upon I have no idea that they will not know what the Japanese want until the soldiers are in Peking, and are settling the question with the emperor himself. The North China Herald says that the present war is an object lesson. The position of the two great powers of the East have been reversed. China is disclosed as a wolf in sheep's clothing while Japan has with one bound suddenly entered the country of nations. The western world has been blind to the fact that Japan was steadily and surely working herself to a position which should command recognition and respect. It has been equally blind to the extent to which official corruption was undermining China. The same period that has loaded Japan with laurels of admiration and applause has suffered to cover China with confusion and contempt. Such system of internal rottenness has been laid bare that even her best friends are forced to admit that the present process of being ground in the mill is perhaps the best thing for her.

"A letter that came here on the 21st says that the weather about New Chang is very cold, but the Red Cross nurses are taking care of some 200 wounded soldiers, and the place is surrounded, and a big battle is expected. Another batch of wounded men are being brought to the hospitals at this place. The Japanese shelled the town of Chefoo on the coast, and the United States warship Yorktown took away the missionaries. Later advices say that the town was Teng-Chofu, where the Presbyterians and the Baptists have stations. It is a very important point if the enemy wish to blockade the Gulf of Pechili, and that is undoubtedly their purpose. To be sure the remnant of the Chinese fleet is there, but beyond aiding the forts to stand off the fleet, can do next to nothing. There are American and English ships of war in the harbor here, and the Englishmen take kindly to the evangelical meetings held on the vessels, but the came of men on the American gunboats is low indeed. They are the rif-raft of all nations, and only a small percentage can lay any claim to a residence in the states, let alone citizenship. The officers are a very pleasant lot, and on the whole present a much superior appearance to any other nationality represented in port.

"Affairs at Wei-Hai-Wei are interesting. The Japs had all the fortifications surrounding the harbor days ago, but there is an island on which the Chinese have some big guns and about which they have drawn up their fleet, and have given out that they have supplies enough to hold out for a month. We do not take stock in this story for well to do officials who have been living at the arsenal have moved into the settlement, and word comes from Peking that they have pressed 700 carts into service. Seven of the 10 foreigners who were with the forces at Wei-Hai-Wei have been killed presumably by the Chinese. They are now without foreign leaders at that point, and today we hear that the Kunan braves have struck for 20 taels per month for each common soldier, and unless they secure what they want they will lay down their arms. I have a letter from Doctor Stanford who is at Hiroshima, the military center of Japan, and it gives a good view of the condition of affairs in Japan, greatly in contrast with the condition here. The letter follows:

"Hiroshima is now the center of everything in Japan since the emperor has come here in order to be nearer the seat of war. He has been here two months, and will remain indefinitely unless China patches up peace, and shells out taels. The seat of government is temporarily here, and here the special session of parliament was held. All the affairs of the army and navy are directed from here, and the city is filled with soldiers quartered on the people at the rate of 20 cents per day, every family having as many boarders as they can accommodate. As I write the military band is discoursing stirring martial airs, and it is almost always thus. This morning I crossed the parade ground inside the outer moat of the castle, and looked upon the raw recruits as they drilled. I saw the sections of the small iron boats that were used so effectively at Ping-Yang in making pontoon bridges by which the Japanese quickly crossed the river to the surprise and confusion of the Chinese. From this place of activity I went to the hospitals of the regular army, and saw many poor fellows minus arms, legs or feet. Some left them at Osen, but more at Ping-Yang or Yi-Cho, and a few at the Yaloo river fight. In one ward we found four Chinamen who were treated just the same as the Japanese. They had an interpreter, and seemed to enjoy it. The Japanese had scrubbed up these Chinese so that they really looked clean. They were good looking fellows, cheerful and cordial in their cranium bobbing, picked up from their captors. I presume, for one can't be under Japanese influence long without limbering up the cervical vertebrae. In addition to this hospital there are four branches on a large scale, beating the regular hospital all to pieces in the number of patients. The Red Cross nurses are in charge of some of the hospitals, and there are quite a number of our Christian nurses at work. They are spreading the word of God. The various missions are pooling their interests, and going into undenominational work in the hospitals, giving out testaments to officers and men alike. All the people here are patriotic, but none are more so than the Christians. They have been charged so often with being hostile to patriotism that they gladly take up the opportunity to show of what stuff their religion is made. These things not only make an impression upon the recipients, but on the authorities who know and sanction the work."

The letter from Japan bears all the marks of cheerful victory, while the epistle from China shows that even the American missionaries feel the defeat of the emperor's forces.

Will Sell the Army.

Captain Supplee has received notices stating that the armory at East Palestine, formerly occupied by Company E, would be sold at 1 o'clock on April 26, at public sale by the commissioners. The proceeds will go to the county treasury, although the boys here have not given up hope of getting a new building.

Three of a Kind.

The contract for the janitorship of the Second United Presbyterian church was to have been let yesterday, but on examination of the bids the trustees found the three lowest were a tie, each of the trio of bidders wanting $30. New bids will be received, and the job let tomorrow night.

STARTED FOR THE WEST

Two Liverpool Boys Reached Rochester.

THERE THEY WERE ARRESTED

Because George Simms Had Taken John McVay's Revolver Before He Left the City—Brought Back Today and Sentenced by Squire Rose for Petty Larceny—Morgan Not Implicated in the Theft.

The lot of the Liverpool boy who starts for the West to kill Indians and win undying fame is not always like a long summer dream after he leaves the city.

Yesterday afternoon, George Simms, a son of Nathaniel Simms, who resides on the hill top in the rear of the city, walked into the shoe shop of John McVay on Broadway. McVay was not in, and his father, who usually stays in the place when he is away, had stepped out for a moment. He saw young Simms enter the place, and remain only a few minutes but thought nothing of it, as the boy frequently visited the shop. Upon returning to the place he found that a large revolver that had long been a conspicuous ornament in the room was missing. Then he recalled the fact that Simms had told him a few days ago that he would soon be in California, and believing the boy had taken the weapon he decided to stop the runaway. A telephone message was hastily sent to Detective Lazarus at Rochester, and the chief of police in Alliance was notified. No word came from the Ohio town, but last night a message came from Rochester. The detective had used the description of Simms to good advantage, and had captured the youth late in the afternoon. He was accompanied by Albert Morgan, a son of William Morgan of this place, and they were bound for the west. Simms was armed with the revolver he had taken from McVay, and another, which is thought to belong to him, since no one has stepped forward to claim it. The youth did not deny that he had taken the revolver, but seemed sadly disappointed because he had been captured before doing some wild deed of daring. Morgan was not anxious to continue the trip, and Simms declared they would never have been caught if Morgan had left Rochester with him in the afternoon. The detective lodged a charge of carrying concealed weapons against Simms, and held Morgan for instructions. Meantime McVay had entered a charge of petty larceny against Simms in the court of Squire Rose, and Constable Albright was detailed to bring him home. William Morgan had been notified of his son's escapade, and accompanied the constable to Rochester this morning. They brought the pair home on the nine train, Morgan being delighted to get out of Rochester. At the hearing before Squire Rose, nothing could be held against Morgan and he was allowed to go, but the charge of larceny stood between Simms and liberty. He made no attempt to deny his guilt and the squire fined him $10 and the costs or 20 days in the county jail. Not having the amount about him he was locked up until some arrangement could be made looking to the payment of the fine.

Whose Job is It?

The question has again arisen as to who will clean the council chamber as it is in a condition not calculated to suit a desire for neatness. There have been several trials in council chamber this week and the place needs renovating. The claim is made that when squires use the place the constables should follow in their wake with brooms and dust pans, but the constables cannot see it that way. The prospects of a workhouse sentence has scared away the regulars who are usually glad to mop up the floor for their liberty so the question is still undecided.

In the Hour of Need.

Three lonesome forlorn looking clerks sat in the postoffice at lunch time this morning nibbling a weary looking cracker turn about, and as the last crumb disappeared the look of despair on their faces softened the stony heart of a young man who stood watching the sad scene. He hid himself to his bakeshop on Fourth street and returned with a bushel basket full of cakes, jelly rolls and tarts and soon there was joy and rejoicing in Uncle Samuel's once desolate department. The ladies express their thanks.

No Smallpox on the Hudson.

The officials of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet line say there is no truth in the report sent out from Wheeling that one of the crew of the steamer Hudson had been taken off the boat at that place Saturday night suffering from smallpox. The Hudson was in Cincinnati at that time. The crew of the other packets know nothing about the alleged case.

Thomas Mears, the Steubenville

man who sued Mrs. Anna Wooliscroft for $172.75, the amount of a liquor bill, was at city hall this morning when Squire Travis called the case. No one appeared to look after the interests of the defendant, and the justice gave judgment for the amount asked. The case has been pending in the court for some time.

Joseph B. Allison sued Samuel Groves some time ago for $121, and the case was called in the court of Squire Travis at city hall this afternoon.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Three Men Will Stand Trial in Police Court.

It is not often that a victim in police court pleads not guilty, but, occasionally one refuses to be fined without a trial, and this week Mayor Gilbert will enjoy the luxury of three hearings.

Charles Niblock and Will Gillespie, who were arrested by Office Supplee on Saturday night for alleged disorderly conduct on Washington street, were represented in mayor's court last night by Squire Travis who entered pleas of not guilty. The trials will be had on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The young men were arrested after they came out of the "Duby," and it was not until afterward that the officers entered the place and ordered quiet.

H. Meador, the Fourth street saloonist who Officers Wyman and Supplee claim passed two half pints of whisky from his saloon to a young man on the street Sunday evening, was at city hall yesterday afternoon to see about the charge entered against him. He decided to plead not guilty, and will have a trial before Mayor Gilbert at city hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The officers claim to have plenty of evidence against Meador, having witnessed the act, and think there will be no trouble in convicting their man.

Meador claims that he sold the young man four half pints of whisky on Saturday night, and that the two bottles found on him by the officers on Sunday evening was a part of it.

Arthur Stanway has not yet appeared at city hall to answer to the charge of Sunday selling preferred by Office Supplee. He is still confined to his bed, and in view of an old fine against him for the same offense, probably prefers it to a bunk in the Canton workhouse.

Bradley Had Friends.

Mayor Gilbert had a couple of visitors Sunday who pleaded for the freedom of a prisoner. They were little girls, and as they entered the new office they wanted the chief executive to "please let the old man out." The "old man" referred to was John Bradley, the wandering tailor who had acquired a jag and had been fined $5.60. The girls said he had promised to go to church, and they knew he would be a good man if the mayor would only let him go. When asked to pay Bradley's fine the girls decided that it was a financial impossibility, but promised to pay the mayor's fine if he ever got arrested. The mayor said he would think the matter over, and as he had decided to let Bradley go anyway, he turned him out yesterday morning. The childish innocence showed confidence in the old man, and if he does not keep his promise to the little ones who pleaded for his liberty, he will deserve to be called a mean man.

Whose Job is It?

The question has again arisen as to who will clean the council chamber as it is in a condition not calculated to suit a desire for neatness. There have been several trials in council chamber this week and the place needs renovating. The claim is made that when squires use the place the constables should follow in their wake with brooms and dust pans, but the constables cannot see it that way. OLD BUILDINGS TO GO

Two in the City Have Been Condemned.

DANGER FOR THE OCCUPANTS

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Adam Will Have Them Vacated As Soon As Possible—One On Seventh Street Another On Second In Bad Condition—Owners Are Responsible.

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Adam have been condemning a pair of old buildings, and have decided to have them vacated without delay.

The first is on Seventh street near the Horn switch. It was built on the bank, and for years was safe as any building in town, being occupied by the colored people for a time as a church building. In late years the bank has crumbled, leaving the house in a dangerous position. A family named Kaiser occupy the place, and have been ordered to vacate at once. The authorities do not know the owner of the property. The other house is next the Commercial on Second street, and was until recently occupied by John Good. The side next the hotel is rotting away, and it might fall at any time. The family have been ordered out, and the owner notified not to rent it again. It is the property of J. L. Ainsley, of Calcutta. There are other houses to be treated in like manner if the owners do not repair or tear them down.

Two Small Cases.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, March 26.—Last June the city of Salem decided it wanted 124 feet off the south side of two lots owned by Alice S. Garwood, and appropriated the ground to the city's service. Today Solicitor Hole filed a suit asking that a jury settle the price.

Chamberlain Brothers & Co., of East Palestine, brought suit today against Joseph Thomas and D. W. Moore, asking judgment for $150, the value of a promissory note given to the concern by the defendants.

An Assignment.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, March 26.—The following assignment of cases for next week was made public today: Monday, Haltzer and Charles Zoellers; Tuesday, John Henry, Addison Duke; Wednesday, George Barkhurst, two indictments; Thursday, Toledo Machine company against John A. Chapman; Friday, Salem against Alice Garwood, and the same city against Albert Silver. The Zoellers boys and Barkhurst cases are from East Liverpool.

Gresham May Resign.

Special to the News Review.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Personal friends of Secretary Gresham laugh at the story that he will resign because President Cleveland does not like his foreign policy. The president and Gresham are on the best of terms, and there is no rupture between them. Nevertheless it would not be a big surprise to Washington if there is a change in the cabinet.

Doyle Went South.

Link Doyle, who was formerly employed at the Chelsea at New Cumberland, passed south for Wheeling on No. 57 this morning, and was kind enough to inform a Toronto man that he had escaped from the East Liverpool jail last night by breaking through the bars. He took the train at Wellsville. Doyle is an old offender up in the Crockery City, and was in as a plain drunk. A companion also escaped with him.—Toronto Tribune.

The Rechabites Are Happy.

The second presentation of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" by the Rechabites brought a comfortable audience to the Grand last night, and proved as much of a success as the effort of Saturday evening. The proceeds of the entertainment will reach $150, all of which will be devoted to the lady's organization. A prominent member of the order said this morning that they owed a great deal of their success to the News Review.

Cleaning the Streets.

Commissioner Welsh and his force are at work on the paved streets in the upper part of the city, and have already worked a great change in their appearance. A stranger was heard to remark the other day "Liverpool always looks nice in summer, but it is not passably good looking in winter."

Located the Box.

The difficulties surrounding the location of the East End patrol box have been settled, and there will be no more complaint because the box is out of town.

The People's Store,
East Liverpool, O.

To the Public.

Our Annual Opening and Public Reception will take place on Friday, Mar. 29, and Saturday, Mar. 30. There will be Music, Souvenirs and Floral Display, and an exhibition of the New Spring Goods, Dress Goods and Trimmings, Silk Waists and Capes, Laces & Embroideries, Hosiery and Gloves, Lace Curtains and Draperies, China and Glass, Wash Dress Goods and White Goods, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Etc. Simms is a member of one of the best known and highly respected families in the city, and the escapade of the boy has caused them great grief.

COULDN'T AGREE.

Jury In the Gould Case Discharged—Other Civil Suits.

The jury failed to reach any conclusion in the case of Clay Gould against the East Liverpool Pottery company yesterday afternoon, and were discharged.

There was a lot of evidence to show the position of the different sides, and when the jury retired it was expected that a verdict would be reached in a few minutes, but the decision failed to come. After the crowd had waited half an hour the jury announced that it could not agree, and the case was continued until such time as the interested parties could be ready for another trial. It was learned that the first ballot stood three to two for the defendant, and on the second ballot Gould had lost another supporter. As that juror seemed determined, the decision was announced that they could not agree. The testimony was the principal feature of the case.

Thomas Mears, the Steubenville man who sued Mrs. Anna Woolscroft for $172.75, the amount of a liquor bill, was at city hall this morning when Squire Travis called the case. No one appeared to look after the interests of the defendant, and the justice gave judgment for the amount asked. The case has been pending in the court for some time.

Joseph B. Allison sued Samuel Groves some time ago for $121, and the case was called in the court of Squire Travis at city hall this afternoon.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Three Men Will Stand Trial In Police Court.

It is not often that a victim in police court pleads not guilty, but, occasionally one refuses to be fined without a trial, and this week Mayor Gilbert will enjoy the luxury of three hearings.

Charles Niblock and Will Gillespie, who were arrested by Officer Supplee on Saturday night for alleged disorderly conduct on Washington street, were represented in mayor's court last night by Squire Travis who entered pleas of not guilty. The trials will be had on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The young men were arrested after they came out of the "Duby," and it was not until afterward that the officers entered the place and ordered quiet.

H. Meanor, the Fourth street saloonist who Officers Wyman and Supplee claim passed two half pints of whisky from his saloon to a young man on the street Sunday evening, was at city hall yesterday afternoon to see about the charge entered against him. He decided to plead not guilty, and will have a trial before Mayor Gilbert at city hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The officers claim to have plenty of evidence against Meanor, having witnessed the act, and think there will be no trouble in convicting their man.

Meanor claims that he sold the young man four half pints of whisky on Saturday night, and that the two bottles found on him by the officers on Sunday evening was a part of it.

Arthur Stanway has not yet appeared at city hall to answer to the charge of Sunday selling preferred by Officer Supplee. He is still confined to his bed, and in view of an old fine against him for the same offense, probably prefers it to a bunk in the Canton workhouse.

Bradley Had Friends.

Mayor Gilbert had a couple of visitors Sunday who pleaded for the freedom of a prisoner. They were little girls, and as they entered the new office they wanted the chief executive to "please let the old man out." The "old man" referred to was John Bradley, the wandering tailor who had acquired a jag and had been fined $5.00. The girls said he had promised to go to church, and they knew he would be a good man if the mayor would only let him go. When asked to pay Bradley's fine the girls decided that it was a financial impossibility, but promised to pay the mayor's fine if he ever got arrested. The mayor said he would think the matter over, and as he had decided to let Bradley go anyway, he turned him out yesterday morning. The childish innocence showed confidence in the old man, and if he does not keep his promise to the little ones who pleaded for his liberty, he will deserve to be called a mean man.

Whose Job Is It?

The question has again arisen as to who will clean the council chamber as it is in a condition not calculated to suit a desire for neatness. There have been several trials in council chamber this week and the place needs renovating. The claim is made that when squires use the place the constables should follow in their wake with brooms and dust pans, but the constables cannot see it that way. The prospects of a workhouse sentence has scared away the regulars who are usually glad to mop up the floor for their liberty so the question is still undecided.

In the Hour of Need.

Three lonesome forlorn looking clerks sat in the postoffice at lunch time this morning nibbling a weary looking cracker turn about, and as the last crumb disappeared the look of despair on their faces softened the stony heart of a young man who stood watching the sad scene. He hid himself to his larkshop on Fourth street and returned with a bushel basket full of cakes, jelly rolls and tarts and soon there was joy and rejoicing in Uncle Samuel's once desolate department. The ladies express their thanks.

No Smallpox on the Hudson.

The officials of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet line say there is no truth in the report sent out from Wheeling that one of the crew of the steamer Hudson had been taken off the boat at that place Saturday night suffering from smallpox. The Hudson was in Cincinnati at that time. The crew of the other packets know nothing about the alleged case.

OLD BUILDINGS TO GO

Two in the City Have Been Condemned.

DANGER FOR THE OCCUPANTS

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Adam Will Have Them Vacated As Soon As Possible—One On Seventh Street Another On Second In Bad Condition—Owners Are Responsible.

Mayor Gilbert and Chief Adam have been condemning a pair of old buildings, and have decided to have them vacated without delay.

The first is on Seventh street near the Horn switch. It was built on the bank, and for years was as safe as any building in town, being occupied by the colored people for a time as a church building. In late years the bank has crumbled, leaving the house in a dangerous position. A family named Kaiser occupy the place, and have been ordered to vacate at once. The authorities do not know the owner of the property. The other house is next the Commercial on Second street, and was until recently occupied by John Good. The side next the hotel is rotting away, and it might fall at any time. The family have been ordered out, and the owner notified not to rent it again. It is the property of J. L. Ainsley, of Calcutta. There are other houses to be treated in like manner if the owners do not repair or tear them down.

Two Small Cases.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 26.—Last June the city of Salem decided it wanted 124 feet off the south side of two lots owned by Alice S. Garwood, and appropriated the ground to the city's service. Today Solicitor Hole filed a suit asking that a jury settle the price.

Chamberlain Brothers & Co., of East Palestine, brought suit today against Joseph Thomas and D. W. Moore, asking judgment for $156, the value of a promissory note given to the concern by the defendants.

An Assignment.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 26.—The following assignment of cases for next week was made public today: Monday, Baltzer and Charles Zoellers; Tuesday, John Henry, Addison Duke; Wednesday, George Barkhurst, two indictments; Thursday, Toledo Machine company against John A. Chapman; Friday, Salem against Alice Garwood, and the same city against Albert Silver. The Zoellers boys and Barkhurst cases are from East Liverpool.

Gresham May Resign.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Personal friends of Secretary Gresham laugh at the story that he will resign because President Cleveland does not like his foreign policy. The president and Gresham are on the best of terms, and there is no rupture between them. Nevertheless it would not be a big surprise to Washington if there is a change in the cabinet.

Doyle Went South.

Link Doyle, who was formerly employed at the Chelsea at New Cumberland, passed south for Wheeling on No. 57 this morning, and was kind enough to inform a Toronto man that he had escaped from the East Liverpool jail last night by breaking through the bars. He took the train at Weilsville. Doyle is an old offender up in the Crockery City, and was in as a plain drunk. A companion also escaped with him.—Toronto Tribune.

The Rechabites Are Happy.

The second presentation of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" by the Rechabites brought a comfortable audience to the Grand last night, and proved as much of a success as the effort of Saturday evening. The proceeds of the entertainment will reach $150, all of which will be devoted to the lady's organization. A prominent member of the order said this morning that they owed a great deal of their success to the NEWS REVIEW.

Cleaning the Streets.

Commissioner Welsh and his force are at work on the paved streets in the upper part of the city, and have already worked a great change in their appearance. A stranger was heard to remark the other day "Liverpool always looks nice in summer, but it is not passably good looking in winter."

Located the Box.

The difficulties surrounding the location of the East End patrol box have been settled, and there will be no more complaint because the box is out of town.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MAR. 26.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

G. CLEVELAND has said little since
he returned from that southern trip.
Perhaps he is waiting for something to
drop.

THERE should be a general sifting
before the nomination. Separate the chaff from the grain and elect only
the men who will hold public office
as a private trust.

If the income tax is declared unconstitutional, Carlisle will have to issue another batch of bonds. He cannot run the country on wind, even
though there is a great quantity of it
in the administration.

EUROPEAN potters are filling the
American market with vast quantities of ware, knowing full well that it
will not be long until another tariff
will bring the smile of satisfaction to
this side of the water.

THE Democratic press is pointing
to the once-protected tin plate industry as a shining light of their new
tariff, showing that new mills are being built in many parts of the country, but not a Democratic editorial
points to the fact that there has been
a big cut in the wages of tin plate
workmen since the new tariff became
a reality.

ONE REASON.

In spite of the oft-repeated assertion that the hard times were brought
on by the discussion of the financial
question, the Democratic excuse for
the deplorable condition of the country will not down. The discussion of the money system did not deprive
thousands of men in the iron mills of
employment and beggar many families that never knew the word want in
its awful meaning. The silly twaddle
of a few statesmen by courtesy did
not increase the importation of manufactured articles by many millions of dollars, neither did it start the fires
and wheels in English factories that have been idle for years. It did not
force down the wages of the potters
any more than it stayed the tide of immigration. Mr. Wilson's little bill
did all these things, and it will continue to do them until there is no
more use for mills and factories on this side of the great Atlantic. When
that bill is repealed, and a protective
tariff stands between the American
workman and starvation wages, prosperity, with all the force of those
years of stir and progress preceding
the election of Grover Cleveland, will return.

PAUPERISM IN ENGLAND.

Pauperism in free-trade England
has prompted a writer to send the following to an American magazine:
"It is generally thought that we are reducing our number of paupers. That is quite fallacious. Taking 1857,
the earliest date available, we find
that in a population of 19,000,000, the
number of indoor paupers in the first week of December was 129,000, while
in January, 1894, in a population of 30,000,000, the number was 173,710.
Following the statistics year by year,
we find a continuous advance in the
number of indoor paupers nearly keeping pace with the growth of the population. The case of male able-bodied paupers is still more startling. Between January, 1880, and January,
1894, the number had increased from 26,000 to 391,319. In London it has risen year after year, and yet, amid
all this starvation, want of work and
distress, our free-trade government
admits prison-made goods free into
this country, and sends British contracts for soldiers' clothes, arms, etc.,
to foreign makers because the labor is cheaper. This is the essence of free trade."

THE EX-PRIEST LEFT.

Slattery Just Escaped Being
Mobbed at Memphis.

A CROWD SURROUNDS HIS HOTEL.

But the Assailant of Catholicism Had Taken His Departure—A Repetition of
the Savannah Riot Narrowly Averted
An Auditor Calls Him a Liar.

MEMPHIS, March 26.—Ex-Priest Sla-
ttery lectured at the Auditorium last
night for the second time within a week. On the occasion of his first appearance no notice was taken of him by
the leading Catholic people in the city,
as there was no trouble whatever.
Last night, however, the meeting came
near ending in a serious disturbance.

EX-PRIEST SLATTERY AND WIFE.

and but for the ex-priest's hurried exit
from the city while the excitement was
at its height, he might have encour-
ered rather severe treatment.
As on the night of the first lecture extraordinary precautions were taken by the police to preserve the peace. Officers in citizens' clothes were freely distributed through the audience and a
good sized guard was placed about the stage. A big crowd filled the auditorium while it was evident that many
were present who did not sympathize
with Slattery's utterances, there was no
sign of disorder until near the close of
the lecture, when a man in the centre
of the house arose and excitedly shouted: "You're a liar; you're a liar against
religion."

Half the audience were on their feet
in an instant, but before the disturber
could say anything more he was grabbed by an officer and ejected. After order
was restored Slattery concluded his remarks without further interruption.
Slattery took the first train for the south. An excited crowd gathered at
his hotel, thinking he had gone there,
but after learning that the ex-priest had
left the city they quietly dispersed.
Had he remained here, there might
have been a repetition of the riot at Savannah, when he and his wife were
nearly mobbed.

WHEELING PEOPLE SCARED.

Two Cases of Smallpox There—River
Steamers Quarantined.

WHEELING, March 26.—Wheeling has
had a smallpox scare for a few days and
it was made greater when it was learned that a second case had been landed in the city pesthouse after wandering
at will about town for 36 hours. There are now two typical cases of confluent
smallpox in the city.

The city health board and the local
member of the state board met and a
quarantine was ordered on all river
steamers and a rigid system of inspection provided for. Both the patients
here were colored deckhands, one off
the Hudson from Cincinnati and the
other off the Keystone State from Memphis. The members of the board were
very hot at the steamboat officials for
landing them and a telegram was sent
to Washington calling the attention of
the national board of health to the reck-
less disregard of the public safety.

Smallpox in Dallas.

DALLAS, March 26.—Smallpox has broken out at the city hospital at this
place and City Health Officer Armstrong
has quarantined that institution. Four
cases are posted, the first having been brought here from Hot Springs.

A LETTER

From the Superintendent of the
Fairmount Children's Home,
FAIRMOUNT CHILDREN'S HOME
ALLIANCE, OHIO, Nov. 14, '95.
THE TONSILINE COMPANY:

In past years we have had a
great deal of experience at the
home with throat disease, varying
from simple sore throat to diphteria.
During the past three months we have given your throat
remedy a thorough test. I am glad to be able to say, Tonsiline
has proven itself to be a very valuable remedy in our hands in
treating throat diseases of different kinds. We have used several bottles and in every case it has effected a speedy cure. Some four weeks since, one of the children,
three years old, was taken sick,
with every indication of genuine
diphtheria. We depended on Tonsiline and our trust was not
misplaced, as a marked improvement was soon noticed, and the
child made a complete recovery,
with none of the attendant ills so
often following diphtheria. My wife joins me in commending
Tonsiline as the most valuable
throat remedy we have ever used.

M. M. SOUTHWORTH, Supt.
Can you doubt the great value
of TONSILINE after reading
such evidence of its merit? A mother is not doing her duty who
knows of Tonsiline and does not
keep a bottle in the house ready
for use. Tonsiline saves dollars and lives. Tonsiline costs 25c
and 50c at ALL DRUGGISTS.

A BULLETIN.

Evidence That One Had Been Committed
In a R. & O. Box Car.

TOLEDO, March 26.—What is taken
to be evidence of a brutal murder has
been discovered in a Baltimore and Ohio boxcar that has reached here over
the Michigan Central from Detroit.
When the car was opened there was a
pool of blood in the center, beside which
were a number of bloody stones, which
had been used as weapons, presumably,
upon the head of the unfortunate victim. The sides of the car and even the roof were bespattered with blood, and
a bloody collar and necktie, near the scene of the struggle had probably been
wrenched from the throat of the victim
during his struggles.

As nearly as could be judged from
the marks and track inside the car, the victim had been assailed by two men. He had been thrown down and beaten within
a few feet of the side door, and after
being killed or reduced to insensibility,
his body had been dragged to the door.
Prints of bloody fingers show that
this had been opened and then the victim thrown out. The door had been closed from the inside, after which the
two occupants of the car had made
their exit by the opposite entrance.

HARD STORM IN OHIO.

But It Was No Tornado, as at First
Reported.

CINCINNATI, March 26.—Exaggerated
reports of an alleged tornado sweeping
over Ohio have been sent out. The wind has made the streets almost unen-
durable here but the damage was limited
to signs here and to sheds in the country.

A severe rain and wind storm swept
across Delaware county, taking in part
of Delaware City. Orchards and forests were badly damaged, fences broken
and some cattle killed. In Delaware
City the Renner block was damaged,
and the homes of Frank White and
Fred Kureley were badly damaged.
The debris from these buildings broke
45 telegraph wires. The telegraph companies have suffered damages in other parts of the state. No lives were lost
and none were injured. The people in Delaware county were, however, badly
scared.

Historic Building Nearly Destroyed.

WARREN, O., March 26.—The Trum-
bull county courthouse, a historic building, has been nearly destroyed by fire,
causing a loss of $20,000, which is covered by insurance. The structure was erected in 1832, and in it were recorded
nearly all the transfers of land of the Connecticut Land company, which are
now known as the Western reserve.
The records were all saved from destruction, although many of the more
recent records were destroyed, involving
a loss which cannot be estimated.

One Killed and Two Injured.

CRESTON, O., March 26.—During a
high windstorm the side of a 2-story
brick in the course of erection on Main
street for Griscom Bros. collapsed,
burying three persons. One of them,
Jacob Wentz, the contractor, was taken
out dead. His body was terribly crushed. Andrew Baird sustained a skull and arm and a slight fracture of the skull, and Martin Murray was internally injured, but not seriously. Wentz
leaves a wife and three children.

Prominent Cincinnati Man Dead.

CINCINNATI, March 26.—Mr. John E.
Bell, a prominent citizen, identified for
a long time with public affairs in Cincinnati, has died of appendicitis, aged 64 years.

Arrested a Burglar.

CLEVELAND, March 26.—Manager A.
F. Hartz of the Euclid Avenue opera-
house arrested a burglar in his house on
Case avenue, Monday morning.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MAR. 26.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

G. CLEVELAND has said little since
he returned from that southern trip.
Perhaps he is waiting for something to
drop.

THERE should be a general sifting
before the nomination. Separate the
chaff from the grain and elect only
the men who will hold public office
as a private trust.

If the income tax is declared un-
constitutional, Carlisle will have to
issue another batch of bonds. He can-
not run the country on wind, even
though there is a great quantity of it
in the administration.

EUROPEAN potters are filling the
American market with vast quanti-
ties of ware, knowing full well that it
will not be long until another tariff
will bring the smile of satisfaction to
this side of the water.

THE Democratic press is pointing
to the once-protected tin plate indus-
try as a shining light of their new
tariff, showing that new mills are being built in many parts of the coun-
try, but not a Democratic editorial
points to the fact that there has been
a big cut in the wages of tin plate
workmen since the new tariff became
a reality.

ONE REASON.

In spite of the oft-repeated asser-
tion that the hard times were brought
on by the discussion of the financial
question, the Democratic excuse for
the deplorable condition of the country will not down. The discussion of
the money system did not deprive
thousands of men in the iron mills of
employment and beggar many fami-
lies that never knew the word want in
its awful meaning. The silly twaddle
of a few statesmen by courtesy did
not increase the importation of manufactured articles by many millions of
dollars, neither did it start the fires
and wheels in English factories that
have been idle for years. It did not
force down the wages of the potters
any more than it stayed the tide of
immigration. Mr. Wilson's little bill
did all these things, and it will continue to do them until there is no
more use for mills and factories on
this side of the great Atlantic. When
that bill is repealed, and a protective
tariff stands between the American
workman and starvation wages, prosperity, with all the force of those
years of stir and progress preceding
the election of Grover Cleveland, will
return.

PAUPERISM IN ENGLAND.

Pauperism in free-trade England
has prompted a writer to send the following to an American magazine:
"It is generally thought that we are
reducing our number of paupers.
That is quite fallacious. Taking 1857,
the earliest date available, we find
that in a population of 19,000,000, the
number of indoor paupers in the first
week of December was 129,000, while
in January, 1894, in a population of 30,000,000, the number was 173,710.
Following the statistics year by year,
we find a continuous advance in the
number of indoor paupers nearly keeping pace with the growth of the population. The case of male able-bodied paupers is still more startling. Between January, 1880, and January,
1894, the number had increased from 26,000 to 391,319. In London it has
risen year after year, and yet, amid
all this starvation, want of work and
distress, our free-trade government
admits prison-made goods free into
this country, and sends British con-
tracts for soldiers' clothes, arms, etc.,
to foreign makers because the labor is
cheaper. This is the essence of free
trade."

THE EX-PRIEST LEFT.

Slattery Just Escaped Being
Mobbed at Memphis.

A CROWD SURROUNDS HIS HOTEL.

But the Assailant of Catholicism Had Taken His Departure—A Repetition of
the Savannah Riot Narrowly Averted
An Auditor Calls Him a Liar.

MEMPHIS, March 26.—Ex-Priest Sla-
ttery lectured at the Auditorium last
night for the second time within a
week. On the occasion of his first appearance no notice was taken of him by
the leading Catholic people in the city,
as there was no trouble whatever.
Last night, however, the meeting came
near ending in a serious disturbance.

EX-PRIEST SLATTERY AND WIFE.

and but for the ex-priest's hurried exit
from the city while the excitement was
at its height, he might have encour-
ered rather severe treatment.

As on the night of the first lecture extraordinary precautions were taken by
the police to preserve the peace. Officers in citizens' clothes were freely distributed through the audience and a
good sized guard was placed about the doors. A big crowd filled the auditorium and while it was evident that many
were present who did not sympathize
with Slattery's utterances, there was no
sign of disorder until near the close of
the lecture, when a man in the centre
of the house arose and excitedly shouted: "You're a liar; you're a liar against
religion."

Half the audience were on their feet
in an instant, but before the disturber
could say anything more he was grabbed
by an officer and ejected. After order
was restored Slattery concluded his remarks without further interruption.
Slattery took the first train for the south. An excited crowd gathered at
his hotel, thinking he had gone there,
but after learning that the ex-priest had
left the city they quietly dispersed.
Had he remained here, there might
have been a repetition of the riot at Savannah, when he and his wife were
nearly mobbed.

WHEELING PEOPLE SCARED.

Two Cases of Smallpox There—River
Steamers Quarantined.

WHEELING, March 26.—Wheeling has
had a smallpox scare for a few days and
it was made greater when it was learn-
ed that a second case had been landed in the city pesthouse after wandering at will about town for 36 hours. There
are now two typical cases of confluent
smallpox in the house.

The city health board and the local
member of the state board met and a
quarantine was ordered on all river
steamers and a rigid system of inspection provided for. Both the patients
here were colored deckhands, one off
the Hudson from Cincinnati and the
other off the Keystone State from Memphis. The members of the board were
very hot at the steamboat officials for
landing them and a telegram was sent
to Washington calling the attention of
the national board of health to the reck-
less disregard of the public safety.

Smallpox in Dallas.

DALLAS, March 26.—Smallpox has
broken out at the city hospital at this
place and City Health Officer Armstrong
has quarantined that institution. Four
cases are posted, the first having been
brought here from Hot Springs.

A LETTER

From the Superintendent of the Fairmount Children's Home.
FAIRMOUNT CHILDREN'S HOME
ALLIANCE, OHIO, Nov. 14, '95.

THE TONSILINE COMPANY:
In past years we have had a
great deal of experience at the
home with throat disease, varying
from simple sore throat to diptheria. During the past three months we have given your throat
remedy a thorough test. I am
glad to be able to say, Tonsiline
has proven itself to be a very valuable remedy in our hands in
treating throat diseases of different kinds. We have used several
bottles and in every case it has
effected a speedy cure. Some four
weeks since, one of the children,
three years old, was taken sick,
with every indication of genuine
diphtheria. We depended on Tonsiline and our trust was not
misplaced, as a marked improve-
ment was soon noticed, and the
child made a complete recovery,
with none of the attendant ills so
often following diphtheria. My
wife joins me in commending
Tonsiline as the most valuable
throat remedy we have ever used.
M. M. SOUTHWORTH, Supt.

Can you doubt the great value
such evidence of its merit? A
mother is not doing her duty who
knows of Tonsiline and does not
keep a bottle in the house ready
for use. Tonsiline costs 25c
and 50c AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

A BRUISE.

Evidence That One Had Been Committed
In a R. & O. Box Car.

TOLEDO, March 26.—What is taken
to be evidence of a brutal murder has
been discovered in a Baltimore and Ohio boxcar that has reached here over
the Michigan Central from Detroit.
When the car was opened there was a
pool of blood in the center, beside which
were a number of bloody stones, which
had been used as weapons, presumably,
upon the head of the unfortunate vic-
tim. The sides of the car and even the
roof were bespattered with blood, and
a bloody collar and necktie, near the
scene of the struggle had probably been
wrenched from the throat of the victim
during his struggles.
As nearly as could be judged from
the marks and track inside the car, the
victim had been assailed by two men. He
had been thrown down and beaten within
a few feet of the side door, and after
being killed or reduced to insensibility,
his body had been dragged to the door.
Prints of bloody fingers showed that
this had been opened and then the victim thrown out. The door had been
closed from the inside, after which the
two occupants of the car had made
their exit by the opposite entrance.

HARD STORM IN OHIO.

But It Was No Tornado, as at First
Reported.

CINCINNATI, March 26.—Exaggerated
reports of an alleged tornado sweeping
over Ohio have been sent out. The
wind has made the streets almost unen-
durable here but the damage was limited
to signs here and to sheds in the
country.

A severe rain and wind storm swept
across Delaware county, taking in part
of Delaware City. Orchards and forests were badly damaged, fences broken
and some cattle killed. In Delaware
City the Renner block was unroofed
and the homes of Frank White and
Fred Kurreley were badly damaged.
The debris from these buildings broke
45 telegraph wires. The telegraph companies have suffered damages in other parts of the state. No lives were lost
and none were injured. The people in Delaware county were, however, badly
scared.

Historic Building Nearly Destroyed.

WARREN, O., March 26.—The Trum-
bull county courthouse, a historic build-
ing, has been nearly destroyed by fire,
causing a loss of $20,000, which is covered by insurance. The structure was erected in 1832, and it was recorded
nearly all the transfers of land of the Connecticut Land company, which are
now known as the Western reserve.
The records were all saved from destruction, although many of the more
recent records were destroyed, involving
a loss which cannot be estimated.

One Killed and Two Injured.

CRESTON, O., March 26.—During a
high windstorm the side of a 2-story
brick in the course of erection on Main
street for Griscom Bros. collapsed,
burying three persons. One of them,
Jacob Wentz, the contractor, was taken
out dead. His body was terribly
crushed. Andrew Baird sustained a broken arm and a slight fracture of the skull, and Martin Murray was internally injured, but not seriously. Wentz
leaves a wife and three children.

Prominent Cincinnati Man Dead.

CINCINNATI, March 26.—Mr. John E.
Bell, a prominent citizen, identified for
a long time with public affairs in Cincinnati, has died of appendicitis, aged 64 years.

Arrested a Burglar.

CLEVELAND, March 26.—Manager A.
F. Hartz of the Euclid Avenue opera-
house arrested a burglar in his house on

GETTING BETTER.

His Wouldbe Assassin Is a Lunatic.

RUSSIA IS BACKING JAPAN.

Her Demands For Great Concessions From China Likely to Be Granted — Russia Will Receive Long-Sought Favors — Li's Assassins May Be Shot.

Kobe, March 26.—Li Hung Chang is making good progress toward recovery from the effects of the bullet wound in his face inflicted by Koyama Rokunoaki. The wound has developed no dangerous symptoms.

The wouldbe assassin is reported to be a lunatic. He has a criminal record and has served a term of imprisonment.

A Washington special says: Information coming to the Chinese legation is to the effect that Li Hung Chang's wound is not dangerous except as complications may develop. It is in the fleshy part of the face, but fortunately no vital organ reached. Prince Li's advanced age and several constitutional disorders which make him almost an invalid, however, may aggravate an otherwise harmless wound. On his arrival at Shimonoseki Li was too sick to leave the ship which brought him. He has to be carried about, this being a necessity in his case as well as an honor due his rank. Officials of the Japanese legation say the offender probably will be charged with treason, as the assault is not only against the person of Li Hung Chang but also against the Japanese government.

It is probable, also, that the trial will be by court martial, if the martial law existing at Hiroshima has been extended to Shimonoseki. Conviction by court martial would mean that the offender would be shot. While hanging would be the penalty if a civil court convicted him, that form of capital punishment has been substituted for decapitation in Japan. In this connection Japanese officials say the "Lord High Executioner" of "Mikado" fame never had an existence of fact. Mrs. John W. Foster, wife of the ex-secretary of state, who accompanies Li Hung Chang in an advisory capacity, has not heard from her husband concerning the shooting.

She regards this as favorable, as she assured her he would use the cable freely. Mr. Foster's last letter came Shanghai, prior to joining Li at Tientsin. Apparently Mr. Foster regards a peaceful settlement as sure to come. The letters speak of the care the Japanese government took to prevent a popular outbreak when the first peace commission met at Kobe. So fearful was the government that the anti-peace feeling might bring out some shooting, such as that which has occurred to Li, that all school teachers were directed to teach Japanese children, it was a necessary feature of civilization to accord respect to foreigners.

Diplomats here are inclined to believe that the entire peace negotiations possibly may be broken off by the assault on Li, by affording a pretext for European intervention. Li himself, however, will prevent a failure of peace negotiations if it is possible for him to do so, as the Empress Dowager has so impressed upon him the necessity of returning to China with a peace settlement, that failure, it is asserted, will be followed by his committing suicide.

Officials here regard it as settled that Russia and Japan have reached an understanding by which the former will extend her territory southward from Vladivostok, thus securing a Pacific harbor open the year round. This has been an acquisition Russia has long sought, and it gives an eastern ocean outlet to the great Siberian railroad. The understanding is regarded as so definite and settled that those diplomats here who are most concerned with the subject say Japan is now assured of Russia's support in urging heavy concessions from China.

Hard on Trolley Companies.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—The decision of the supreme court, expressed in an opinion by Justice Williams, in the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, appellant, against the Montgomery County Railroad company, appellee, is a serious blow to trolley companies. The gist of the opinion is that the street railway act gave no right of eminent domain, and that as the trolley lines are incorporated under that act, they have no power to construct their road, where the taking of property is incident or necessary to it, without the consent of the property owner.

Presbyterian Missionaries Adjourn.

DETROIT, March 26.—The Presbyterian Sunday school missionaries have completed their annual conference. The meeting was devoted principally to a discussion of the necessity for more missionaries in the field. Thirty-seven more missionaries were asked for by the various states and territories as follows: Michigan, 4; Montana, 3; Wisconsin, 1; North Dakota, 1; West Virginia, 2; Nebraska, 3; Missouri, 2; Arkansas, 2; Colorado, 1; Wyoming, 1. The Gospel Chariot, published at Topeka, Kan., was endorsed as the representative paper of the organization.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

The Y. M. C. A. Course Earned a Net Profit.

Chairman E. M. Crosser, of the lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian association, has finished up the business of the season, and finds that there is money in the treasury. The course was probably the best ever heard in the city, there being six good lectures for the price at which five were given heretofore. The audience had the advantage of the opera house, an innovation which met with favorable comment and undoubtedly aided in increasing the patronage. The character of the lectures was above reproach, and the extra number was appreciated. The settlement shows that all expenses have been paid, and there is for the Young Men's Christian association treasury $110, the only balance in the history of the association. The credit for this successful issue is largely due Mr. Crosser, who as chairman of the committee has devoted all the time required to making the course a success.

Charley Gill's Chances.

Chief Gill is hard at work canvassing the county, and is making friends everywhere. He has covered many townships, and his friends are looking after his interests in other places. A Leontia man, who knows enough of politics to be conversant with the details of the situation, is responsible for the statement that the chief will poll more votes in that part of the county than the other candidates imagine, and will surely be nominated.

Open on Sunday.

There are said to be photographers in East Liverpool who are busily engaged in running their galleries on Sabbath, and who are boasting of doing a land office business. They may run up again a snag in the shape of outraged law and public opinion, when they will find that it will pay best to run a legal and legitimate business. The information comes from a reliable source, and the offenders will do well not to repeat their Sabbath experiment of March 24.

Did You Ever

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy, or troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use. Large bottles only 50c at T. L. Pott's drug store.

Will Fight in Private.

It is announced that arrangements for a fight between Scheller and Johnson have been made, and the battle will soon come off. The affair will not be public, only a favored few of each man's friends being allowed to witness the mill. The time and place has been decided upon, but no man knows it except the few intimates who are to be present. The fight is for a purse of $250, and the sports say that each man will do his best to win it.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Pott's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

A Pleasant Lady.

"Charley's Aunt" is one of the best characters seen upon the stage in later years, and will doubtless attract a large audience to the Grand this evening. The play contains all the elements required to keep an audience laughing during the evening, and was written for the sole purpose of amusing the public. The situations are ridiculous and the dialogue witty.

Debs Case Being Argued.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The United States supreme court is hearing argument in the case of Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union, and others who participated with him in the Chicago strike of the summer of 1894. Debs and his associates ask for a writ of habeas corpus relieving them from the sentence of imprisonment passed upon them by Judge Woods of the United States circuit court on the charge of contempt in failing to obey the injunction of the court requiring them to desist from interfering with interstate commerce and the mails.

Ida Wells and Her Methods.

KANSAS CITY, March 26.—A resolution endorsing Miss Ida M. Wells and her anti-lynching principles was the cause of an acrimonious debate in the weekly meeting of the Ministers' alliance, which is composed of local protestant divines. Rev. S. M. Neel, a southerner, moved that it be laid on the table without being read. This was defeated after a lively time and the resolution read, although it was later laid on the table.

A Bad Swindler Caught.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Chief Inspector Wheeler of the postoffice department has been notified of the arrest at Cape May, Ontario, of Henry Smyth, who escaped from a United States marshal at Little Rock, Ark., last November. He is charged with defrauding various merchants out of an aggregate of $15,000.

A Drunken Man Choked to Death.

VERMILION, Ky., March 26.—Polk Calmes, colored, while on his way home in an intoxicated condition, fell against the fence in front of the Versailles cemetery. His head became fastened between the pickets and he choked to death.

Shot At by the Cashier.

CHICAGO, March 26.—A thief attempted to rob the till of the Equitable Commission company in the Grand Pacific building and was shot at by the cashier. Several shots were exchanged but no one was seriously hurt.

Evidently Likes Tramping.

CLEVELAND, March 26.—M. A. Chrostowski, editor of a Polish paper here, is in receipt of a letter from Count Rybakowski, the leader of the Polish commovent of last summer, who is now in Washington, in which the count says he is coming to Cleveland soon to organize another commonwealth army.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Daughters of America will enjoy dancing in Junior Mechanic hall this evening.

Another secret organization is being talked of among the fraternal and mystic variety.

Mrs. Will H. Harker has issued invitations for a reception at her home on Cook street Thursday evening.

The parents of M. A. Adams, Sixth street, are very ill at Monroeville. One is aged 73 and the other 75, and it is feared that they cannot recover.

Claude Neese, of New York, arrived yesterday to take a position in the office of Architect A. W. Scott, but is now confined to his bed with an attack of tonsillitis.

The chairman of the various committees of the Christian Endeavor society met in the First Presbyterian church last night, and selected the members of the respective committees.

F. H. Sebring received a cablegram from his brother, George Sebring, today. It was dated this morning in Rome and announced that the Liverpool tourists were about to leave there for Paris.

The ball given by the Ceramic City club in Bradshaw hall last night, to mark the close of their season, was very successful. About 60 young people were in attendance and enjoyed dancing until after midnight.

The vagaries of the weather were beyond comprehension this morning. For an hour it snowed, and then without warning the sun came out and the mercury began to rise. In half an hour the snow was falling again.

Mrs. James Sennott died at her home in Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon after a long illness, the result of a stroke of paralysis. The lady is the mother of Mrs. James E. Orr, who has been with her for several weeks.

The annoying delays caused by the spreading of the rails on the street car line near Walker are no more today, and cars are moving on schedule time. The force had the defect remedied last night after hours of hard work.

More activity is reported in the new oil field just over the river and farmers are thinking twice before they lease. The Pittsburgh people are anxious to get control of as much territory as possible, and are going beyond the first estimate of 300 acres.

The entertainment given by the East End Daughters of Liberty, at Mechanic hall last night, was one of the most pleasant affairs seen there in months. A large crowd was present to enjoy the rendition of an excellent musical and literary program.

The Sons of Veterans will celebrate their anniversary tonight, and have invited the Grand Army and Relief Corps to aid in the entertainment. There will be a lunch, some speeches and a lot of good music during the evening. The organization recently initiated a number of recruits.

A child of Wallace Ammond, of Walker, was buried yesterday, having died with diphtheria. The case was a virulent one and the little one's illness was but of a few days' duration. So far no other cases of diphtheria have appeared at Walker, and every means possible is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

After several attempts and any number of preliminary arrangements the athletes of the Young Men's Christian association organized the base ball club for the season last night. Will Weaver will be the manager, and Philip McShane will captain the team. Plans for the season's campaign are already being laid, and the members of the team hope to win any number of battles before winter comes.

Rivermen here assert that the smallpox cases in Wheeling came from packets, one of the men having left the Keystone State a few hours before it arrived in this city. If this be true and the colored deckhand who escaped on Sunday evening is still at large in this city, people who fear smallpox will do well to tell the fellow alone. It is thought that he has long since left the city.

An encounter on Sixth street came near resulting in a battle between two men, one of whom was accompanied by a woman. They were passing when the lone pedestrian accidentally struck his elbow against the woman's arm, and in spite of the fact that he lifted his hat, and begged her pardon, came near being thrashed by the other fellow, who swore any number of oaths in a loud voice, and said the stranger was trying to get acquainted with his wife.

The arrest of two saloonists for selling liquor on Sunday is the outgrowth of much watchfulness on the part of the police, as the only evidence required was the actual fact that the saloons were doing business. They have been morally certain of this for some time, but with all their care, could not obtain sufficient evidence to warrant an arrest. There are others in the city who have been under the eye of the officers, but they have to this time escaped without being called to city hall.

Spring Capes.

We are selling a nice Cloth Cape at $1.49. Also stacks of better ones at $2.50, $3.50, $5, $7.50 and $10. Don't think your pocketbook will be smashed flat by buying a Spring Wrap. It won't cost you near what you think it will. The Separate Skirts have come to stay. The ladies are pleased with them. They say they fit well, have the style to them, and cost less than the goods would to buy the yard and have one made.

Our New Department

up stairs is making an impression on the people. When you can buy Shirt Waists and have them fitted on by a practical dressmaker, as we are having done, or when you can buy a Silk Waist for $3.90, like we are selling, or when you can have such an array of Wrappers and Tea Gowns to select from, as we are showing, is it any wonder that our new department is coming to the front?

Dress Goods.

Are you interested? Step in and see what we are doing. Don't be surprised at the values we are showing. We are not losing money, although it may seem like it, when we show you Dress Goods at 25c per yard that sold at 50c last season, we are giving you a bargain, are we not? Well, this is only one of the things that we are doing in our Dress Goods stock. We guarantee to give you more style and better values for your dollars than we have ever been able to do before. Come and see us.

GETTING BETTER.

His Wouldbe Assassin Is a Lunatic.

RUSSIA IS BACKING JAPAN.

Her Demands For Great Concessions From China Likely to Be Granted—Russia Will Receive Long-Sought Favors—Li's Assassin May Be Shot.

Kobe, March 26.—Li Hung Chang is making good progress toward recovery from the effects of the bullet wound in his face inflicted by Koyama Rokunoaki. The wound has developed no dangerous symptoms.

The wouldbe assassin is reported to be a lunatic. He has a criminal record and has served a term of imprisonment.

A Washington special says: Information coming to the Chinese legation is to the effect that Li Hung Chang's wound is not dangerous except as complications may develop. It is in the fleshy part of the face, but fortunately no part of the skull has been fractured.

Li's advanced age and several constitutional disorders which make him almost an invalid, however, may aggravate an otherwise harmless wound. On his arrival at Shimonoseki Li was too sick to leave the ship which brought him. He has to be carried about, this being a necessity in his case as well as an honor due his rank. Officials of the Japanese legation say the offender probably will be charged with treason, as the assault is not only against the person of Li Hung Chang, but also against the Japanese government.

It is probable, also, that the trial will be by court martial, if the martial law existing at Hiroshima has been extended to Shimonoseki. Conviction by court martial would mean that the offender would be shot. While hanging would be the penalty if a civil court convicted him, that form of capital punishment having been substituted for decapitation in Japan. In this connection Japanese officials say the "Lord High Executioner" of "Mikado" fame never had an existence of fact. Mrs. John W. Foster, wife of the ex-secretary of state, who accompanies Li Hung Chang in an advisory capacity, has not heard from her husband concerning the shooting.

She regards this as favorable, as he assured her he would use the cable freely. Mr. Foster's last letter came Shanghai, prior to joining Li at Tientsin. Apparently Mr. Foster regards a peaceful settlement as sure to come. The letters speak of the care the Japanese government took to prevent a popular outbreak when the first peace commission met at Kobe. So fearful was the government that the anti-peace feeling might bring out some shooting, such as that which has occurred to Li, that all school teachers were directed to teach Japanese children, it was a necessary feature of civilization to accord every respect to foreigners.

Diplomats here are inclined to believe that the entire peace negotiations possibly may be broken off by the assault on Li, affording a pretext for European intervention. Li himself, however, will prevent a failure of peace negotiations if it is possible for him to do so, as the Empress Dowager has so impressed upon him the necessity of returning to China with a peace settlement, that failure, it is asserted, will be followed by his committing suicide.

Officials here regard it as settled that Russia and Japan have reached an understanding by which the former will extend her territory southward from Vladivostok, thus securing a Pacific harbor open to the year round. This has been an acquisition Russia has long sought, and it gives an eastern ocean outlet to the great Siberian railroad. The understanding is regarded as so definite and settled that those diplomats here who are most concerned with the subject say Japan is now assured of Russia's support in urging heavy concessions from China.

Hard on Trolley Companies.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—The decision of the supreme court, expressed in an opinion by Justice Williams, in the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, appellant, against the Montgomery County Railroad company, appellee, is a serious blow to trolley companies. The gist of the opinion is that the street railway act gave no right of eminent domain, and that as the trolley lines are incorporated under that act, they have no power to construct their road, where the taking of property is incident or necessary to it, without the consent of the property owner.

Presbyterian Missionaries Adjourn.

DETROIT, March 26.—The Presbyterian Sunday school missionaries have completed their annual conference. The meeting was devoted principally to a discussion of the necessity for more men in the field. Thirty-seven more missionaries were asked for by the various states and territories as follows: Michigan, 4; Montana, 2; Illinois, 4; Indiana, 3; Iowa, 3; Minnesota, 2; Wisconsin, 1; North Dakota, 1; West Virginia, 2; Nebraska, 3; Missouri, 2; Arkansas, 2; Colorado, 1; Wyoming, 1. The Gospel Chariot, published at Topeka, Kan., was endorsed as the representative paper of the organization.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

The Y. M. C. A. Course Earned a Net Profit.

Chairman E. M. Crosser, of the lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian association, has finished up the business of the season, and finds that there is money in the treasury. The course was probably the best ever heard in the city, there being six good lectures for the price at which five were given heretofore. The audience had the advantage of the opera house, an innovation which met with favorable comment and undoubtedly aided in increasing the patronage. The character of the lectures was above reproach, and the extra number was appreciated. The settlement shows that all expenses have been paid, and there is for the Young Men's Christian association treasury $116, the only balance in the history of the association. The credit for this successful issue is largely due Mr. Crosser, who as chairman of the committee has devoted all the time required to making the course a success.

Charley Gill's Chances.

Chief Gill is hard at work canvassing the county, and is making friends everywhere. He has covered many townships, and his friends are looking after his interests in other places. A Leetonia man, who knows enough of politics to be conversant with the details of the situation, is responsible for the statement that the chief will poll more votes in that part of the county than the other candidates imagine, and will surely be nominated.

Open on Sunday.

There are said to be photographers in East Liverpool who are busily engaged in running their galleries on Sabbath, and who are boasting of doing a land office business. They may run up again a snag in the shape of outraged law and public opinion, when they will find that it will pay best to run a legal and legitimate business. The information comes from a reliable source, and the offenders will do well not to repeat their Sabbath experiment of March 24.

Did You Ever

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of a wide range of complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy, or troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use. Large bottles only 50c at T. L. Pott's drug store.

Will Fight in Private.

It is announced that arrangements for a fight between Scheller and Johnson have been made, and the battle will soon come off. The affair will not be public, only a favored few of each man's friends being allowed to witness the mill. The time and place has been decided upon, but no man knows it except the few intimates who are to be present. The fight is for a purse of $250, and the sports say that each man will do his best to win it.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Potts drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

A Pleasant Lady.

"Charley's Aunt" is one of the best characters seen upon the stage in later years, and will doubtless attract a large audience to the Grand this evening. The play contains all the elements required to keep an audience laughing during the evening, and was written for the sole purpose of amusing the public. The situations are ridiculous and the dialogue witty.

Debs Case Being Argued.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The United States supreme court is hearing argument in the case of Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union, and others who participated with him in the Chicago strike of the summer of 1894. Debs and his associates ask for a writ of habeas corpus retrieving them from the sentence of imprisonment passed upon them by Judge Woods of the United States circuit court on the charge of contempt in failing to obey the injunction of the court requiring them to desist from interfering with interstate commerce and the mails.

Ida Wells and Her Methods.

KANSAS CITY, March 26.—A resolution endorsing Miss Ida M. Wells and her anti-lynching principles was the cause of an acrimonious debate in the weekly meeting of the Ministers' alliance, which is composed of local protestant divines. Rev. S. M. Neel, a southerner, moved that it be laid on the table without being read. This was defeated after a lively time and the resolution read, although it was later laid on the table.

A Bad Swindler Caught.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Chief Inspector Wheeler of the postoffice department has been notified of the arrest at Cape May, Ontario, of Henry Smyth, who escaped from a United States marshal at Little Rock, Ark., last November. He is charged with defrauding various merchants out of an aggregate of $15,000.

A Drunken Man Choked to Death.

VERMILION, Ky., March 26.—Polk Calmes, colored, while on his way home in an intoxicated condition, fell against the fence in front of the Versailles cemetery. His head became fastened between the pickets and he choked to death.

Shot At by the Cashier.

CHICAGO, March 26.—A thief attempted to rob the till of the Equitable commission company in the Grand Pacific building and was shot at by the cashier. Several shots were exchanged but no one was seriously hurt.

Evidently Likes Tramping.

CLEVELAND, March 26.—M. A. Chrostowski, editor of a Polish paper here, is in receipt of a letter from Count Rybakowski, the leader of the Polish commonwealth of last summer, who is now in Washington, in which the count says he is coming to Cleveland soon to organize another commonwealth army.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Daughters of America will enjoy dancing in Junior Mechanic hall this evening.

Another secret organization is being talked of among the fraternal and mystic variety.

Mrs. Will H. Harker has issued invitations for a reception at her home on Cook street Thursday evening.

The parents of M. A. Adams, Sixth street, are very ill at Monroeville. One is aged 73 and the other 75, and it is feared that they cannot recover.

Claude Neese, of New York, arrived yesterday to take a position in the office of Architect A. W. Scott, but is now confined to his bed with an attack of tonsillitis.

The chairman of the various committees of the Christian Endeavor society met in the First Presbyterian church last night, and selected the members of the respective committees.

F. H. Sebring received a cablegram from his brother, George Sebring, today. It was dated this morning in Rome and announced that the Liverpool tourists were about to leave there for Paris.

The ball given by the Ceramic City club in Bradshaw hall last night, to mark the close of their season, was very successful. About 60 young people were in attendance and enjoyed dancing until after midnight.

The vagaries of the weather were beyond comprehension this morning. For an hour it snowed, and then without warning the sun came out and the mercury began to rise. In half an hour the snow was falling again.

Mrs. James Sennott died at her home in Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon after a long illness, the result of a stroke of paralysis. The lady is the mother of Mrs. James E. Orr, who has been with her for several weeks.

The annoying delays caused by the spreading of the rails on the street car line near Walker are no more today, and cars are moving on schedule time. The force had the defect remedied last night after hours of hard work.

More activity is reported in the new oil field just over the river and farmers are thinking twice before they lease. The Pittsburgh people are anxious to get control of as much territory as possible, and are going beyond the first estimate of 300 acres.

The entertainment given by the East End Daughters of Liberty, at Mechanic hall last night, was one of the most pleasant affairs seen there in months. A large crowd was present to enjoy the rendition of an excellent musical and literary program.

The Sons of Veterans will celebrate their anniversary tonight, and have invited the Grand Army and Relief Corps to aid in the entertainment. There will be a lunch, some speeches and a lot of good music during the evening. The organization recently initiated a number of recruits.

A child of Wallace Ammond, of Walker, was buried yesterday, having died with diphtheria. The case was a virulent one and the little one's illness was but of a few days' duration. So far no other cases of diphtheria have appeared at Walker, and every means possible is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

After several attempts and any number of preliminary arrangements the athletes of the Young Men's Christian association organized the base ball club for the season last night. Will Weaver will be the manager, and Philip McShane will captain the team. Plans for the season's campaign are already being laid, and the members of the team hope to win any number of battles before winter comes.

Rivermen here assert that the smallpox cases in Wheeling came from packets, one of the men having left the Keystone State a few hours before it arrived in this city. If this be true and the colored deckhand who escaped on Sunday evening is still at large in this city, people who fear smallpox will do well to tell the fellow alone. It is thought that he has long since left the city.

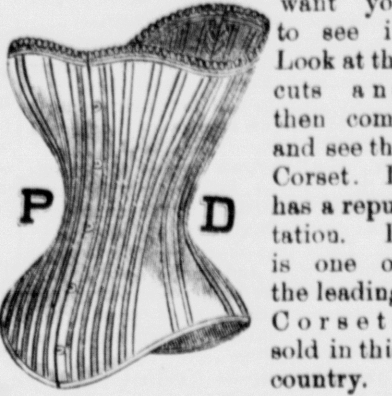

An encounter on Sixth street came near resulting in a battle between two men, one of whom was accompanied by a woman. They were passing when the lone pedestrian accidentally struck his elbow against the woman's arm, and in spite of the fact that he lifted his hat, and begged her pardon, came near being thrashed by the other fellow, who swore any number of oaths in a loud voice, and said the stranger was trying to get acquainted with his wife.

The arrest of two saloonists for selling liquor on Sunday is the outgrowth of much watchfulness on the part of the police, as the only evidence required was the actual fact that the saloons were doing business. They have been morally certain of this for some time, but with all their care, could not obtain sufficient evidence to warrant an arrest. There are others in the city who have been under the eye of the officers, but they have to this time escaped without being called to city hall.

A New Corset in Town.

It is not a 50c Corset; in fact, it is a high priced corset, but we want you to see it. Look at the cuts and then come and see the Corset. It has a reputation. It is one of the leading Corsets sold in this country.

Ask to see the "P. D." Corset. Thompson's Glove Fitting Corset, in all grades Over 25 dozen new ones this week. We are selling the best makes of Corsets, and are building up a good trade on the merits of the goods we are selling. Be sure and see the "P. D."

Be sure and see the "P. D."

Spring Capes.

We are selling a nice Cloth Cape at $1.49. Also stacks of better ones at $2.50, $3.50, $5, $7.50 and $10. Don't think your pocketbook will be smashed by buying a Spring Wrap. It won't cost you near what you think it will. The Separate Skirts have come to stay. The ladies are pleased with them. They say they fit well, have the style to them, and cost less than the goods would to buy the yard and have one made.

Our New Department

up stairs is making an impression on the people. When you can buy Shirt Waists and have them fitted on by a practical dressmaker, as we are having done, or when you can buy a Silk Waist for $3.90, like we are selling, or when you can have such an array of Wrappers and Tea Gowns to select from, as we are showing, is it any wonder that our new department is coming to the front?

Dress Goods.

Are you interested? Step in and see what we are doing. Don't be surprised at the values we are showing. We are not losing money, although it may seem like it, when we show you Dress Goods at 25c per yard that sold at 50c last season, we are giving you a bargain, are we not? Well, this is only one of the things that we are doing in our Dress Goods stock. We guarantee to give you more style and better values for your dollars than we have ever been able to do before. THEY TALKED IT OVER

Finance Committee and Mr. Sant Met Yesterday.

GOING TO LISBON ON THURSDAY

Doctor Marshall Had Not Heard All the Particulars, and Sant Was Called to Explain—The Bill Will Not Be Paid To-night—Another Pay Roll To Be Passed.

John Sant met with the finance committee of council yesterday, and explained why his bill should be paid. Doctor Marshall was not conversant with the details of the arrangement, and a meeting was held in the parlors of the Hotel Grand in order that he might know something about it. Councilmen Burton and Williams, the other members of the committee, were present, and the whole story of how Sant found the money and made the contract was repeated. No opinion was expressed as to the final disposition of the bill, but Sant declared that he had done what the contract called for, and earned the money. This is what the finance committee want to know, and on Thursday of this week they will go to Lisbon and investigate. They expect to have Auditor Harvey give what he knows about the matter, and all other persons who can intelligently and officially give them information will be seen. If this search reveals that Sant did not earn the money the bill will never be paid. President Berg will accompany the committee. He still holds that if Sant did anything to merit compensation council should not ignore his bill. No expression relating to the legality of the contract can be obtained, as councilmen will not talk.

The present council has one more meeting to pay or reject the bill before they adjourn sine die.

No Mistake in the Name.

The man who attempted to pass forged checks last week promises to become a mystery of no mean proportions. The authorities have information that he lives in Pittsburgh, and is known by the name he gave in this city. He was there the other day, but left for the west before he could be arrested. This story does not go well with the report that Thompson is a resident of the city, and was acting in conjunction with another man, also living here. At best it seems that the pair or the one, as the case may be, will never be punished for that crime.

Likes the Field.

F. W. Thompson, traveling agent of the Cincinnati firm whose members are desirous of putting in a telephone system in this city, went home yesterday afternoon pleased with the field. He questioned several city officials, and was delighted to know that the chances were bright for a franchise without expensive trimmings. The company have placed exchanges in towns in southern parts of the state, and are giving their subscribers good service.

Music in the Schools.

An effort will be made to have music introduced in the public schools of the city. The projectors of the plan hope to have the support of the board of education since there are any number of towns of less importance than East Liverpool now teaching the children the rudiments of music. Wellsville is an example of this class. The idea has many supporters in the city, but there are as usual some who object.

Reverend Slayter May Return.

The steamer Ollie Neville carried 87 members of the Christian church to New Cumberland last night to hear Reverend Slayter preach. The meeting was a large one and three conversions resulted. Reverend Ferral sang several solos. It was 2 o'clock this morning before the boat touched the local wharf. The probabilities are that Reverend Slayter will return to this city for a series of meetings.

The Tarentum Gorge.

The big gorge that has caused so much apprehension in the Allegheny valley broke yesterday, and started on its long journey toward the sea. The sun had so rotted the ice that no damage was done, the cakes grinding themselves to pieces against each other. The ice reached here this morning and for hours filled the river. The cakes were small, and made little noise.

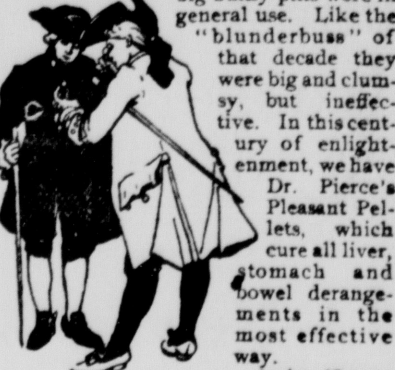

They Call It News.

Schools in all parts of the county are closing, the end of the spring term having been reached, and enterprising people are favoring the NEWS REVIEW with lengthy accounts of entertainments from one to two weeks old. This matter is not news, and some of these writers may save a stamp or two if they remember that news must never be more than 24 hours of age.

Recovering.

Miss Clara, daughter of Fire Chief Adam, who has been ill with a severe attack of grip at her home on Third street, is convalescent.

In Our Great Grandfather's Time,

big bulky pills were in general use. Like the "blunderbuss" of that decade they were big and clumsy, but ineffective. In this century of enlightenment, we have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver, stomach and bowel derangements in the most effective way.

Assist Nature a little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing of fending matter from the stomach and bowels, toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, or dyspepsia, biliousness, pimples, blotches, eruptions, boils, constipation, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

A free sample of the "Pellets," (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

A free sample of the "Pellets," (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.

A Republican Paper.

The Lisbon Journal, for years numbered among the few independent journals of the county, has seen the error of its way, and announces that it is now Republican in politics as its owners have always been. There seems to be no profitable field for the independent.

A Dead Broke Pedestrian.

CLEVELAND, March 26.—George Wilson of Cincinnati, the "dead broke" pedestrian who is engaged in the task of walking to the four corners of the United States, has arrived in Cleveland from Maine, 24 days ahead of schedule time. He reports cordial treatment and bad roads. He is on his way to the northwest corner.

Buying a Horse.

The selection of a new horse for the fire department will probably be made in a few days. Chief Adam and Captain Morley have been looking at several animals, as have some of the street department, and one or two have been found that would answer the purpose very well. The new horse will take the place of Dickey's horse, which is now being used in the hose wagon.

Thanks to the Moore Family.

BEN-HUR WON

the great race in the amphitheater at Antioch, in the stirring story detailed by General Wallace, but the

BEN-HUR BICYCLE

Won the big medal in the famous Buffalo to Pittsburgh road race, by being first into Erie. Misfortune o'ertook the rider and not the wheel, as the BEN-HUR would have been first to spin down Fifth avenue that blazing afternoon last summer. In scores of other contests the BEN-HUR has won, and its popularity will make it win in scores of others yet unborn. Buy one.
